by Transportation Division personnel for overseas shipment.

c. Cargo Shipments (new item - completed)

A total of 23 air and 93 sea and rail shipments were effected.

d. Overtime (new item - completed)

The amount of overtime for the Transportation Division for the pay period 16 August - 29 August, was only 197 hours (excluding 16 hours of an employee on duty at the U. S. Despatch Agent's Office). All of this overtime was in the Highway Branch and the majority was for truck drivers to meet deadline dates on long distance hauls. For a similar two-week pay period from 26 April to 7 May, the total amount of overtime in the Transportation Division was 1,375 hours and the amount of overtime for another two-week period from 10 May to 23 May was 1,493 hours. This reduction in overtime was made possible by rigid control and actual justification prior to authorizing overtime; establishing regular scheduled long haul truck runs between Washington and [REDACTED] whereby overtime is not required; changes in tours of duty of personnel where required; changes in the normal work week for personnel where required; delivering materiel to the [REDACTED] instead of having the materiel sent direct from Washington to the piers in New York area; having automobiles driven to New York during regular working hours instead of having them driven up at night on an overtime basis; and utilizing commercial means instead of Agency trucks whenever it is more economical and the move can be
